

KYLE DINE

the allergy guy

free to school groups!

food allergy education event

Kyle Dine is a food allergy educator and musician who has performed at 800 schools across North America reaching millions of students. After growing up with multiple food allergies, his goal is to help spread allergy awareness in schools through his fun, educational and engaging assemblies.

Assembly details:

Kyle has two assemblies for lower and upper grades (preK-2 and 3-5). His shows cover the basics of food allergies, common causes, symptoms and how to keep allergic students safe. There is a strong anti-bullying message in his assemblies that emphasizes empathy for each others' differences.

Encourages a healthier school!
